PASTORS REFLECTION: I really enjoyed celebrating the Masses with all of you this past weekend. I was very happy to meet a lot of you at the Masses and to reconnect with some of you with whom I have had connections in the past. This upcoming week, July 11-15, I will be out of town attending the orientation of a liturgy leadership program at the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Indiana. This will be a two year program that will include a few visits to the Notre Dame campus and some work in the virtual world. The theme of this program will be forming a Eucharistic culture in our Church by collaborating together as a community of faith. This ties into the Eucharistic renewal which our US Bishops are undertaking, which will culminate in a national Eucharistic Congress in 2024. As always, what we believe about the Eucharist as being the real presence of Christ should affect our words and our actions, which is connected to our Gospel message of the Good Samaritan this Sunday, about who we see as our neighbor.
