PASTORS REFLECTION: We have completed our journey through the Easter season as we celebrate Pentecost this weekend. The Holy Spirit has been alive in our Diocese and in our parish in many unique ways during the Easter season this year. In addition to celebrating ordinations to the priesthood and the diaconate in the last couple of weekends, in our parish we have celebrated first communion, our high school graduates, and our new adult members entering the Church. This Sunday after the morning Mass, we celebrate the Holy Spirit and Pentecost in a special way at our Pentecost luncheon in our food and our fellowship. We are thankful to be able to gather this Sunday afternoon as a parish family. I will be in Rome that weekend with my classmates and professors from the Notre Dame liturgical leadership program, so I will miss being with all of you for our celebration of Pentecost, but my prayers will be with all of you. In one of our readings today for Pentecost from St Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, he states that it is only through the Holy Spirit that we are able to say that Jesus is Lord. The Spirit unites all of us in the Body of Christ, no matter what our background, no matter from where we come. Our parishes of Holy Savior and Immaculate Conception reflect this spirit in different ways in our activities, in our diversity, in our warm welcome, and in the way we joyfully live out our Catholic faith as individuals and as a community guided by the Holy Spirit. Blessings to all of you this Pentecost weekend. Father Lincoln.

Father Lincoln has a blog where he posts all his homilies, the prayers of the faithful, and other Church related things. His blog can be found at: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>
