PASTORS REFLECTION: Elisha grants a special blessing to the woman of Shunem for the great hospitality he gives her. To this day, I still remember the hospitality and welcome that I was offered as a missionary. When I would arrive in a village after a long journey, I would always have a place to rest and I would always have something to eat. Hospitality is an important trait for us to have as Disciples of Christ. As we journey through these summer months, in our parish, we are starting the process of re-imagining our ministry and our lives as Catholics on the parish and Diocesan level. As a part of the synodal process, our Diocese has heard the need of the people for us to offer a lifelong faith learning process; to reach out to our youth, our young adults, and our families; to evangelize the community and to those who have fallen away from the faith; and to reach out to others in works of mercy. You are going to hear more about the re-imagining process this year, just as you will hear more about the Eucharistic renewal that is going on in our Diocese and throughout the country. Blessings to all of you - have a blessed week. Father Lincoln
