PASTORS REFLECTION: I remember that during my childhood and youth, Memorial Day weekend meant the beginning of summer and Labor Day meant the end of summer and the beginning of school. However, with the new schedule of the Clinton public school system and with school now starting again during the summer months, our ideas of the summer and the school year may have changed somewhat. With Labor Day commemorated this Monday, we give thanks for our jobs that help us provide for our families and help us contribute to society. We pray that workers are treated with dignity and respect, while we also pray that workers treat their employers and their work with dignity and respect. Indeed, in our work, we should try to find a way to live out the holiness to which God calls us. The Gospel this weekend calls us to deny our own desires and caprices and to carry our crosses with love and courage. May our work lives, our personal lives, and our lives of faith be united in the way we live out the Gospel each day. Blessings to all of you. It is certainly good being back with all of you this weekend after being away on the mission appeals. Father Lincoln.

SECOND COLLECTION next weekend, September 9th and 10th, is for the Catholic Extension Society. Catholic Extension provides funding to Catholic dioceses in the United States that have demonstrated “mission status.” Generally, mission status is granted to dioceses that are under-resourced and cannot sustain themselves without outside funding. The Extension Society has supported the Diocese of Jackson for decades and this collection gives us an opportunity to give back.

ALTAR SOCIETY parishioners wishing to put flowers at the Altar in memory of a loved one should contact Sharon Hopkins at 601-668-7216 or skhop48@bellsouth.net
