PASTORS REFLECTION: I remember when Labor Day marked the end of the summer and the beginning of the school year. However, the school year begins in July for Clinton district and in August for other districts in the area, making it harder to tell when summer ends. I am glad to be back here at the parishes this month after all my travels in August. Today, in the Gospel, Jesus talks about the ways we should reconcile with our neighbor. This message is crucial in a society that is divided and where people attack rather than reconcile with each other. In the pastor reimagining process that the parishes in our Diocese are undertaking, Bishop Kopacz states that healing, reconciliation, and trust are crucial for achieving unity in the Church and Diocese. Hopefully, when we gather around the table of the Lord together at Mass to celebrate the Eucharist, we can feel a sense of unity and diversity amongst our brothers and sisters in Christ. In my visits to parishes in California, Indiana, and Rhode Island in the mission appeals this year, I enjoyed sharing stories with the people and priests of those parishes, seeing the different ways our Church is present in the diversity of our country. Have a blessed week everyone - Father Lincoln.

Protection of children for grades prek-3 through 11th grade will be next Sunday, September 17, during religious education. Protection of children is a diocesan requirement. The Diocese of Jackson is committed to ensuring that children served by the church are not at risk of sexual abuse by Church personnel. Diocesan policies and procedures currently in place seek to protect, enhance and, in some cases, restore the trust that our faith calls for between agents of the Church and the children and adolescents entrusted to our care. The Diocese of Jackson wishes to encourage any victim of sexual abuse by a member of the Catholic Clergy, Church personnel or members of the Church to come forward.
