PASTORS REFLECTION: This weekend, as we continue our journey during Ordinary Time, and as we celebrate Catechetical Sunday, we honor our catechists, teachers, and all who participate in the religious education program in our parish. Life-long formation for our children, youth, and adults was one of the topics that our parishes identified in the synodal process. Evangelization, faith formation, Eucharistic renewal, and outreach through acts of mercy are some of the areas I have been emphasizing to all of you this past year as your pastor as well. We are very thankful to so many parishioners who contribute to these areas in so many different ways. The theme of Catechetical Sunday this year is: “Come to me all you who labor and are burdened.” (Matthew 11:28). This year’s theme reminds us of the invitation we receive from our Lord to follow him and the way he does not want to add to our burdens, but to lighten them. Blessings to all of you as we celebrate Catechetical Sunday. Have a blessed week - Father Lincoln.
