REFLECTION from Fr. Lincoln: As we hear the parable of the landowner of the vineyard who hires workers for a wage, we might ask ourselves what type of work Jesus wants us to engage in as his disciples. A couple chapters later in Matthew's Gospel, Jesus announces that we will be judged in the end days by the ways we have fed the hungry, clothed the needy, reached out to the poor, and visited the sick and those in prison. But just as the landowner rewarded those laborers who did not work a full day, even if we have been complacent or inactive in the way we have lived out our faith, God gives us hope and calls us to action. Just as the landowner paid all the same wage, God's same love and mercy are extended to all who accept his gift of salvation. We have loving, vibrant and welcoming parishes at Holy Savior and Immaculate Conception. We extend our invitation to all around the table of the Lord. We hope all of you accept our invitation to become engaged in our parishes in the Mass, in our devotions, and in our different activities. Blessings to all you - have a blessed week.
