Fr. Lincoln's Reflection

I love the season of Lent; of the way this holy time of 40 days calls us to reflect upon our lives of the faith and the ways we need conversion and renewal. Last week, we priests in Yazoo City, Clinton, and Vicksburg went to each other's parishes for our Lenten reconciliation services. I enjoy going to the other parishes in our deanery to listen to confessions and to bring the holy sacrament of reconciliation to the people of our Diocese. I also love praying the stations of the cross and having our Lenten meals each Friday evening during Lent with all of you. My hope is that what we practice during Lent may continue to resonate in our life after this holy season has ended. Blessings to all of you on our Lenten journey.
