4th Sunday of Easter

April 21, 2024

On the fourth Sunday of the Easter season, we always celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday. In our Gospel today, Jesus states that he is the Good Shepherd who lays down his life for his sheep. For all of us, including our youth and children, Jesus is such a wonderful image that speaks to us in many different ways. We have Uno the sheep with us in our church at Holy Savior as a symbol of Jesus as the Good Shepherd. I got the idea for Uno from a parish I visited in the summer of 2022 in New Hampshire on a mission appeal for our Diocese. Every time we see Uno at Mass, may we be reminded of Jesus as our Good Shepherd who leads us and guides us through the ups and downs of life. This weekend is also the World Day of Prayer for Vocations, fulfilling the Lord's instruction to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest. We all have different vocations to which God calls us, but, particularly on this world day of prayer, we pray for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated religious life. Blessings to all of you as we continue our joyful Easter season. Father Lincoln.

Next week, April 27-28, we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions. Envelopes are in the vestibule.

A Message from Fr. Lincoln:

This year, I am participating in a program coordinated by the Catholic Extension Society, which assists our Diocese each year with grant funding. This program, called the Compelling Preaching Initiative, provides a way for you all to give me feedback via your smartphone to understand how I, as your pastor, am doing in my homilies and how I am connecting with you. My goal is to learn how I can better engage with all of you through my preaching and ultimately become a better pastor

Aim your smartphone camera at the QR code and tap the link that pops up. It will take you to the quick survey.
