22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 1, 2024

This weekend we commemorate Labor Day. When I was growing up as a child in Chicago, Labor Day always marked the end of the summer and the beginning of the new school year. With school starting earlier now for much of the country, this weekend no longer has this same meaning. Our Catholic faith teaches us about the rights and dignity of the worker and of human work, so Labor Day retains a great significance in our faith. We pray for all workers this weekend. We also pray for those who are unemployed and those who are looking for new work. This weekend is the last of my two weekends away in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles for mission appeals. The missionary spirit of the Diocese of Jackson is what drew me here to Mississippi to be a Diocesan priest. I always enjoy traveling to other parts of the country to talk about our experiences as a mission Diocese. Blessings to all of you this Labor Day weekend.
- Father Lincoln.

This religious education series will explore the theme of meals shared in faithful fellowship and in covenant relationship with God. Father Lincoln will lead a 3-week series on what it means to live out the spirit of the Eucharist in our lives and how we can evangelize and be witnesses to the faith in the reality of our busy daily lives. We are going to try to offer more adult faith offerings this year and have a greater variety to choose from. We are making a big push this year to get our parents involved in religious education for adults. We hope you will join us at 9 a.m. on September 15.

September's Young at Heart will be on September 11th with Mass at 11 a.m. followed by lunch. Sign up sheet is in the vestibule!

More Announcements and Information:

Adult Education:

"The Eucharist in Scripture" explores the biblical theme of meals shared in faithful fellowship and in covenant relationship with God. Old Testament meals and promises provide a foundation for gospel meals with Jesus, culminating in the Last Supper, as it is understood throughout the New Testament. Jesus's bread of life discourse and the early church's practice of "breaking bread" are also explored. Come and enjoy this five-week adult-study of the Eucharist's origins as we dive deeper into our year of "Eucharistic Revival"! Class begins on Sunday, September 15th in McGing Hall. If you are interested please sign-up in the vestibule. We want to make certain we have enough workbooks for all. The cost of the books will be approximately $15 each. Contact Chris Halliwell (601-757-9910) if you have any questions.

Millions of Monicas – Praying With Confidence For Our Children

Many people have children who are struggling to embrace their Catholic faith or have left the Church entirely. A new ministry, Millions of Monicas, supports mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, and aunts in this situation. Following the example of St. Monica, Millions of Monicas come together weekly to persevere in prayer for their children's joyful return to full unity with the Catholic Church. Meetings are held every Tuesday from 6:30-7:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, 127 Church Road, Madison. For more information call the church office at 601.856.2054, email millionsofmonicas@stjosephgluckstadt.com or visit www.millionsofmonicas.com.
