25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 22, 2024

We have had a very hot and humid summer. I know that all of us are looking for the cooler weather of the autumn season. This Sunday morning is the start of autumn. This upcoming Friday at the Daily Mass, our first reading is from the third chapter of the book of Ecclesiastes. This wisdom book proclaims: "There is an appointed time for everything, and a time for every thing under the heavens. A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant. A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to tear down, and a time to build." The cool weather of the fall will later give way to the colder weather of the winter. The autumn colors of the trees will give way to the barren trees of the winter, then the new life of the spring. Let us welcome the season of autumn this weekend and the seasons of our faith under the direction of the Lord. Father Lincoln.

Reverence before Mass: When we arrive before Mass, the Church asks us to spend time in reflection and silence in order to prepare for our participation in Mass. Recently, especially prior to the Saturday evening Mass, there has been a lot of talking before Mass. While it is appropriate to briefly greet other parishioners in a very quiet voice before Mass, it is not appropriate to have a lengthy conversation. This quiet reflection time is a part of our reverence and love for the Eucharist and for the Mass.

Adult Education:

"The Eucharist in Scripture" explores the biblical theme of meals shared in faithful fellowship and in covenant relationship with God. Old Testament meals and promises provide a foundation for gospel meals with Jesus, culminating in the Last Supper, as it is understood throughout the New Testament. Jesus's bread of life discourse and the early church's practice of "breaking bread" are also explored. Come and enjoy this five-week adult-study of the Eucharist's origins as we dive deeper into our year of "Eucharistic Revival"! Class meets Sunday in McGing Hall at 9 a.m. Contact Chris Halliwell (601-757-9910) if you have any questions.

Father Lincoln will lead a 3-week series on September 15, 22, and 29 on what it means to live out the spirit of the Eucharist in our lives and how we can evangelize and be witnesses to the faith in the reality of our busy daily lives. We are going to try to offer more adult faith offerings this year and have a greater variety to choose from. We are making a big push this year to get our parents involved in religious education for adults. We hope you will join us at 9 a.m. in McGing Hall.
