Fr. Lincoln's Reflection

It is hard to believe that we are already at the end of October. This upcoming week our children and youth will celebrate Halloween with our parish sponsored trunk-or-treat event. Then we have two very holy days in our Church's liturgical calendar with All Saints Day and All Souls Day. I always really enjoy those two days where we remember our deceased family members and loved ones, the community of saints, and the souls in purgatory. I hope you will participate in the different events and activities that we have coming up this week. I am very grateful to all of you who contribute to our parish in different ways. Blessings to all of you - Father Lincoln.

The Diocese of Jackson is committed to ensuring that no one being served by the church is at risk of sexual abuse or exploitation by clergy, religious or lay church personnel. The spiritual well-being of all the victims, their families and others in the community is of particular concern to the church. In accordance with our policy, all victims are offered counseling and pastoral care. Anyone who has been a victim of abuse or exploitation by clergy, religious or lay church personnel and has not yet reported it is encouraged to do so. Our victim assistance coordinator, Erika Rojas, a licensed social worker, is available to assist in making a report. Please contact her at 601-326-3736. For more information about diocesan policies and procedures and to learn what the diocese is doing to create a safe environment for everyone, please visit the diocesan website at www.jacksondiocese.org & click on "Protection of Children."

Announcements:

It's Time for a New Parish Directory!

Immaculate Conception is partnering with Holy Savior to put together a new parish directory. This directory will include family photos, names, and contact information of all parishioners who participate. On today, October 27, Stephen Martinolich from Holy Savior will be at Immaculate Conception after our Mass to take family photos in front of our church for the directory. If you are unavailable for a photo today, you will be able to submit a photo of your own to be uploaded to the directory. This directory will be able to be accessed online, through an app, or you may order a directory to be delivered to you. Please exit the church quickly so photos can be taken on the front steps. Coffee and cookies will be in the hall for those waiting for photos to be taken.

Holy Savior will be having a Fall Festival on October 30 at 6 p.m. Everyone is invited to decorate their trunk and hand out candy at the Trunk or Treat for a chance to win the People's Choice award.

Catholic Quiz Answer: The correct answer is A. Mary spoke of offering up suffering and saying the rosary when she appeared in Fatima.

Please notify the Holy Savior's Parish Office of deaths, births, illnesses, or hospitalizations.
To add a prayer intention or any bulletin items please contact Lacey Nalker of Immaculate Conception by Thursday at noon.
