Fr. Lincoln's Reflection

Back in August, I was remarking how quickly the summer months went and how busy they were. Now, as we near the end of our Church's liturgical year and get ready for the busy season of Advent in preparation for the birth of our Lord at Christmas, I am noting how fast these past months have gone by. I love our Church's liturgical calendar, marking the rhythm of life for us Catholics throughout the year. Our readings this weekend and next weekend address the end times, appropriate as we approach the end of the liturgical year. As we near the beginning of Advent, it would be good for us to think about those we can invite to our Advent and Christmas liturgies and activities at Holy Savior. Blessings to all of you - I hope you have a great week. Father Lincoln.

Father Lincoln posts all his homilies, prayers of the faithful, and other reflections on his blog. You can access them on: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>
