Pastor, Lincoln Dall

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 10, 2024

It is difficult many times for me to approach all that I have to do in my roles as vicar general, pastor of two parishes, and prison chaplain. However, I am very grateful for the many different diverse opportunities that I have as a priest. This upcoming week, I was scheduled to attend the Pontifical Mission Society conference in Puerto Rico. However, due to my busy schedule and all the duties I have here at the two parishes and in the Diocese, I had to cancel going to this conference and another regional conference in New Orleans the first week of December. While it would have been wonderful to go to those two events, I must say that I feel relieved being able to concentrate on all I have going on here in Mississippi. We all have to make sacrifices for our faith in different ways. I know that a lot of our parents are constantly making sacrifices to have their children grow up in the faith. Even though I am not able to attend those conferences, I am grateful for all the opportunities I have to serve God here in the Diocese and in our two parishes in Raymond and Clinton. Blessings to all of you - have a blessings week. Father Lincoln.

Father Lincoln posts all his homilies, prayers of the faithful, and other reflections on his blog. You can access them on: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>

Today is Called By Name Sunday, and Bishop Kopacz is inviting everyone in the diocese to submit the names of faithful young men who may be open to the priesthood. If you know a young man who exhibits qualities of faith, leadership, and a heart for service, help encourage him in his vocational discernment by sharing his name and contact information. Please submit young men between the ages of 15 and 30. They will receive a letter of encouragement from Bishop Kopacz, resources from the Vocations office, and invitations to discernment events. Visit jacksonvocations.com/called to submit a name today or use the cards in the pew. Thank you for your prayerful participation in this important campaign.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Next Sunday, November 17, all religious education families are invited to help pack the Thanksgiving boxes for 4Cs. We will meet in McGing Hall at 9 a.m.

Each day we are alive, the Lord gives us 24 hours or 1,440 minutes to grow closer to Him. On the weekend of November 30/December 1, we begin the Advent Season here at Holy Savior Catholic Parish. All adults are invited to McGing Hall at 9:15 a.m. on Sundays during Advent to discuss excerpts from the "Little Blue Book Advent Companion". You can pick up a copy of the book in the church vestibule starting next weekend. Each day the companion book offers interesting information about people, traditions and practices of our faith, followed by the Gospel and reflection. We're excited about this and hope to see everyone there!

Calling all singers! Please join us for Christmas choir rehearsal on Tuesday nights from 7-8 p.m. High school ages and up are welcome. Contact Toni (tcanizaro2018@gmail.com) for questions.

We are collecting items for the 4Cs Thanksgiving meal boxes this weekend. You may leave your items in the vestibule or in the RE building. See the flyer in the vestibule or the digital bulletin for details on the collection!

Holy Savior will be supporting the Arc of Mississippi Arc Angel program and Fr. Lincoln's Prison Ministry program for Christmas this year. Information on Arc Angels and prison ministry needs will be available in the Vestibule the weekends of November 16/17 and 23/24, with gifts needing to be returned to the Church no later than December 1.

Young at Heart will meet Wednesday, November 20 with Mass at 11 a.m. followed by a Friendsgiving meal in McGing Hall. Bring your favorite Thanksgiving dish to share if you'd like. If not, please still join us for food and fellowship. Father Lincoln will be talking about literature and books, based on the recent document issued by Pope Francis. Sign up in the vestibule.

Advent reconciliation service this year will be Wednesday, December 18 at 6:00 pm. It is a great way to prepare for the coming of our Savior at Christmas.

More Announcements and Information:

Adult Education:

"The Eucharist in Scripture" explores the biblical theme of meals shared in faithful fellowship and in covenant relationship with God. Old Testament meals and promises provide a foundation for gospel meals with Jesus, culminating in the Last Supper, as it is understood throughout the New Testament. Jesus's bread of life discourse and the early church's practice of "breaking bread" are also explored. Come and enjoy this five-week adult-study of the Eucharist's origins as we dive deeper into our year of "Eucharistic Revival"! This study is Sundays in McGing Hall at 9 a.m. Contact Chris Halliwell (601-757-9910) if you have any questions.

Diocesan Announcements

Millions of Monicas – Praying With Confidence For Our Children

Many individuals have children who find it challenging to connect with their Catholic faith or have completely distanced themselves from the Church. Millions of Monicas is a ministry dedicated to supporting mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, and aunts facing this issue. Inspired by St. Monica's prayers for her son, St. Augustine, the group gathers weekly to earnestly pray for the joyful return of their children to full communion with the Catholic Church. Millions of Monicas meet every Tuesday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, located at 127 Church Road, Madison. For further details, please contact the church office at 601.856.2054, email millionsofmonicas@stjosephgluckstadt.com, or visit www.millionsofmonicas.com. Please note that there will be no meeting on November 5.
