33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 17, 2024

Back in August, I was remarking how quickly the summer months went and how busy they were. Now, as we near the end of our Church's liturgical next week and get ready for the busy season of Advent in preparation for the birth of our Lord at Christmas, I am noting how fast these past months have gone by. I love our Church's liturgical calendar, marking the rhythm of life for us Catholics throughout the year. Our readings this weekend and next weekend address the end times, appropriate as we approaching the end of the liturgical year. As we near the beginning of Advent, it would be good for us to think about those we can invite to our Advent and Christmas liturgies and activities at Holy Savior. Blessings to all of you - I hope you have a great week. Father Lincoln.

Father Lincoln posts all his homilies, prayers of the faithful, and other reflections on his blog. You can access them on: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>

ANNOUNCEMENTS

There is no elementary or youth religious education November 24 and December 1.

Each day we are alive, the Lord gives us 24 hours or 1,440 minutes to grow closer to Him. On the weekend of November 30/December 1, we begin the Advent Season here at Holy Savior Catholic Parish. All adults are invited to McGing Hall at 9:15 a.m. on Sundays during Advent to discuss excerpts from the "Little Blue Book Advent Companion". You can pick up a copy of the book in the church vestibule starting this weekend. Each day the companion book offers interesting information about people, traditions and practices of our faith, followed by the Gospel and reflection. We're excited about this and hope to see everyone there!

Thank you to all who donated to the 4Cs Thanksgiving project. The boxes will be packaged and distributed this Sunday, November 17 by the children and youth.

Holy Savior will be supporting the Arc of Mississippi Arc Angel program and Fr. Lincoln's Prison Ministry program for Christmas this year. Information will be available in the Vestibule this weekend and next. Gifts should be returned to the Church no later than December 1.

Young at Heart will meet Wednesday, November 20 with Mass at 11 a.m. followed by a Friendsgiving meal in McGing Hall. Bring your favorite Thanksgiving dish to share if you'd like. If not, please still join us for food and fellowship. Father Lincoln will be talking about literature and books, based on the recent document issued by Pope Francis. Sign up in the vestibule.

Thank you to Father Lincoln and to everyone for participating in the Knights football fundraiser. The winners are: 1st qtr - Jimmy Logan, 2nd qtr - Mike Booth, 3rd qtr - Karen Barnes, 4th qtr – Curtis Hopkins. The next football fundraiser will be for the Super Bowl!

If you know a young man between the ages of 15 and 30 who exhibits qualities of faith, leadership, and a heart for service, help encourage him in his vocational discernment by sharing his name and contact information. Visit jacksonvocations.com/called to submit a name or use the cards in the vestibule.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH?

YOU ARE INVITED TO JOIN OUR RCIA CLASSES

RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, it is the process by which an adult person is initiated into the Catholic Church, through Baptism, First Holy Communion and Confirmation. RCIA welcomes: Unbaptized adults, adults baptized in other churches and adults baptized in the Catholic Church, but who lack First Holy Communion and Confirmation. Anyone interested in exploring the Catholic tradition may begin at any time. Next class is November 19 at 6:15 pm. Contact the Church Office (601-924-6344) or Chris Halliwell (601-757-9910) for more information.

Adult Education:

"The Eucharist in Scripture" explores the biblical theme of meals shared in faithful fellowship and in covenant relationship with God. Old Testament meals and promises provide a foundation for gospel meals with Jesus, culminating in the Last Supper, as it is understood throughout the New Testament. Jesus's bread of life discourse and the early church's practice of "breaking bread" are also explored. Come and enjoy this five-week adult-study of the Eucharist's origins as we dive deeper into our year of "Eucharistic Revival"! This study is Sundays in McGing Hall at 9 a.m. Contact Chris Halliwell (601-757-9910) if you have any questions.

Millions of Monicas – Praying With Confidence For Our Children

Many individuals have children who find it challenging to connect with their Catholic faith or have completely distanced themselves from the Church. Millions of Monicas is a ministry dedicated to supporting mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, and aunts facing this issue. Inspired by St. Monica's prayers for her son, St. Augustine, the group gathers weekly to earnestly pray for the joyful return of their children to full communion with the Catholic Church. Millions of Monicas meet every Tuesday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, located at 127 Church Road, Madison. For further details, please contact the church office at 601.856.2054, email millionsofmonicas@stjosephgluckstadt.com, or visit www.millionsofmonicas.com.
