Solemnity of Christ the King

November 24, 2024

We are going to celebrate our national holiday of Thanksgiving later this upcoming week. Then we get ready for the busy holiday season. We know that we are getting close to the end of the year. This weekend we reach the end of our Church's liturgical year with the celebration of the solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Next weekend, we will start the season of Advent as we prepare for the birth of our Savior. So many of us are busy most weeks of the year. Advent and the holiday season gets even busier for us. As we celebrate the solemnity of Christ the King this weekend, may we call to mind the values of our faith that we are to live out each day as we prepare a place in our hearts in this holy season of Advent. Blessings to all of you as we commemorate the end of the liturgical year today and as we get ready for the busy holiday season. Father Lincoln.

Father Lincoln posts all his homilies, prayers of the faithful, and other reflections on his blog. You can access them on: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>

The office will be closed on Wednesday, November 27 through Friday, November 29. If you have an emergency while the office is closed, you may call 662-571-1953.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

There is no elementary or youth religious education November 24 and December 1.

Each day we are alive, the Lord gives us 24 hours or 1,440 minutes to grow closer to Him. On the weekend of November 30/December 1, we begin the Advent Season here at Holy Savior Catholic Parish. All adults are invited to McGing Hall at 9:15 a.m. on Sundays during Advent to discuss excerpts from the "Little Blue Book Advent Companion". You can pick up a copy of the book in the church vestibule. Each day the companion book offers interesting information about people, traditions and practices of our faith, followed by the Gospel and reflection. We're excited about this and hope to see everyone there!

Holy Savior will be supporting the Arc of Mississippi Arc Angel program and Fr. Lincoln's Prison Ministry program for Christmas this year. Information will be available in the Vestibule this weekend. Gifts should be returned to the Church no later than December 1.

If you know a young man between the ages of 15 and 30 who exhibits qualities of faith, leadership, and a heart for service, help encourage him in his vocational discernment by sharing his name and contact information. Visit jacksonvocations.com/called to submit a name or use the cards in the vestibule.

Thank you to all who participated in the Faith in Action 4Cs Thanksgiving Service project. 20 boxes were packaged and distributed to families in need. A special thanks to the Melancon family for coordinating the project!

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH?

YOU ARE INVITED TO JOIN OUR RCIA CLASSES

RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, it is the process by which an adult person is initiated into the Catholic Church, through Baptism, First Holy Communion and Confirmation. RCIA welcomes: Unbaptized adults, adults baptized in other churches and adults baptized in the Catholic Church, but who lack First Holy Communion and Confirmation. Anyone interested in exploring the Catholic tradition may begin at any time. Next class is December 3 at 6:15 pm. Contact the Church Office (601-924-6344) or Chris Halliwell (601-757-9910) for more information.

Millions of Monicas – Praying With Confidence For Our Children

Many individuals have children who find it challenging to connect with their Catholic faith or have completely distanced themselves from the Church. Millions of Monicas is a ministry dedicated to supporting mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, and aunts facing this issue. Inspired by St. Monica's prayers for her son, St. Augustine, the group gathers weekly to earnestly pray for the joyful return of their children to full communion with the Catholic Church. Millions of Monicas meet every Tuesday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, located at 127 Church Road, Madison. For further details, please contact the church office at 601.856.2054, email millionsofmonicas@stjosephgluckstadt.com, or visit www.millionsofmonicas.com.
