First Sunday in Advent

December 1, 2024

This weekend, we not only begin the month of December, but we begin the holy season of Advent as we prepare for the coming of the Lord. In our readings today, we hear about the signs that will come in the end times, because we should always have our eyes fixed on the eternal life we will have in our Lord. However, I don't think these signs are noted in order for us to try to predict the coming of the end times. Rather, the message of these readings about the end times is to lead us and guide us in the way we live out our life each day. I pray that you all have a blessed Advent season, these holy days of preparation. Father Lincoln.

Father Lincoln posts all his homilies, prayers of the faithful, and other reflections on his blog. You can access them on: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>

Millions of Monicas – Praying With Confidence For Our Children

Many individuals have children who find it challenging to connect with their Catholic faith or have completely distanced themselves from the Church. Millions of Monicas is a ministry dedicated to supporting mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, and aunts facing this issue. Inspired by St. Monica's prayers for her son, St. Augustine, the group gathers weekly to earnestly pray for the joyful return of their children to full communion with the Catholic Church. Millions of Monicas meet every Tuesday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, located at 127 Church Road, Madison. For further details, please contact the church office at 601.856.2054, email millionsofmonicas@stjosephgluckstadt.com, or visit www.millionsofmonicas.com.
