Third Sunday in Advent

December 15, 2024

As we celebrate the Third Sunday in Advent this weekend and get ever closer to our celebration of Christmas, we look forward to our Advent reconciliation service this Wednesday. I know that Advent is a busy time of the year, but I want to encourage all of you to come to this service and to participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation as an Advent devotion. Unfortunately, last Lent, we did not have a very good turnout at all for our Lenten reconciliation service, one of the worst turnouts I have ever had at a parish where I have served as pastor, so I really want to encourage all of you, especially our families, to come out this week. We always schedule our service on Wednesday, because our families tell us that this is the best day for them. I will also be going to the parishes in Yazoo City and Vicksburg this upcoming week for their reconciliation services. I always look forward to spending time with those priests and with the parishioners of those parishes. Blessings to all of you this week - Father Lincoln.

Father Lincoln posts all his homilies, prayers of the faithful, and other reflections on his blog. You can access them on: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>

Millions of Monicas – Praying With Confidence For Our Children

Many individuals have children who find it challenging to connect with their Catholic faith or have completely distanced themselves from the Church. Millions of Monicas is a ministry dedicated to supporting mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, and aunts facing this issue. Inspired by St. Monica's prayers for her son, St. Augustine, the group gathers weekly to earnestly pray for the joyful return of their children to full communion with the Catholic Church. Millions of Monicas meet every Tuesday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, located at 127 Church Road, Madison. For further details, please contact the church office at 601.856.2054, email millionsofmonicas@stjosephgluckstadt.com, or visit www.millionsofmonicas.com.
