Fourth Sunday in Advent

December 22, 2024

We want to welcome all of you to our Masses for the 4th week of Advent and for the solemnity of Christmas. We usually have a lot of visitors and extended family members attend Mass during the Christmas holiday. We extend a warm welcome to all of you and wish you and your families a very blessed holiday season. We are glad to continue the tradition of midnight Mass this year, which is the third year we are following in this tradition. On the 4th weekend of the Advent season, I am presenting a homily that is a bit more creative with the help of some of the youth. I always look for new and creative ways for us to immerse ourselves in the world of the Sacred Scripture and to expand the way I approach preaching. I look forward to our celebration of the Christmas season together as a community of faith. Blessings to all of you - Father Lincoln.

Father Lincoln posts all his homilies, prayers of the faithful, and other reflections on his blog. You can access them on: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>

Millions of Monicas – Praying With Confidence For Our Children

Many individuals have children who find it challenging to connect with their Catholic faith or have completely distanced themselves from the Church. Millions of Monicas is a ministry dedicated to supporting mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, and aunts facing this issue. Inspired by St. Monica's prayers for her son, St. Augustine, the group gathers weekly to earnestly pray for the joyful return of their children to full communion with the Catholic Church. Millions of Monicas meet every Tuesday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, located at 127 Church Road, Madison. For further details, please contact the church office at 601.856.2054, email millionsofmonicas@stjosephgluckstadt.com, or visit www.millionsofmonicas.com.
