The Baptism of the Lord

January 12, 2025

This weekend's celebration of the Baptism of the Lord brings to a close our celebration of the joyful Christmas season. We now enter Ordinary Time once again until the beginning of our commemoration of the holy season of Lent on March 5. The baptism we celebrate as Catholic as we come into the Church has its roots in Jesus' baptism. The two requirements for our Catholic baptism are water and in the name of the Trinity: the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. As I celebrate baptisms with our families, it is such a joyful occasion for them, as it is a joyful occasion for our parish for the universal Church as well. As we celebrate the Baptism of our Lord today, I wish blessing for all of you as we bring our joyful season of Christmas to a close. Father Lincoln.

Father Lincoln posts all his homilies, prayers of the faithful, and other reflections on his blog. You can access them on: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>

ANNOUNCEMENTS

All adults are invited to McGing Hall Sundays at 9 a.m. beginning January 12 for a 12-week study on The Bible and the Church Fathers. We hope all will join!

Young at Heart is this Wednesday, January 15, with Mass at 11 a.m. followed by lunch and a presentation in McGing Hall. Please sign up in the vestibule if you plan to attend. All are welcome!

The Knights of Columbus will have another Football Fundraiser. They will be selling squares for $10 each for the Superbowl from January 18 until February 2 after Masses. You have a chance to win $100 per quarter! The proceeds will be split between the Knights and the Ladies Auxiliary.

The annual garage sale benefiting the youth is February 1 from 7 -12. We will begin collecting donations before and after Masses the weekend of January 25 and 26. We will gladly accept your donations of clean and re-sellable items in working order. We will not accept weapons or food. Thank you in advance for your support of the youth program!

The Diocese of Jackson is committed to ensuring that no one being served by the church is at risk of sexual abuse or exploitation by clergy, religious or lay church personnel. The spiritual well-being of all the victims, their families and others in the community is of particular concern to the church. In accordance with our policy, all victims are offered counseling and pastoral care. Anyone who has been a victim of abuse or exploitation by clergy, religious or lay church personnel and has not yet reported it is encouraged to do so. Our victim assistance coordinator, Erika Rojas, a licensed social worker, is available to assist in making a report. Please contact her at 601-326-3736. For more information about diocesan policies and procedures and to learn what the diocese is doing to create a safe environment for everyone, please visit the diocesan website at www.jacksondiocese.org & click on "Protection of Children."

Millions of Monicas – Praying With Confidence For Our Children

Many individuals have children who find it challenging to connect with their Catholic faith or have completely distanced themselves from the Church. Millions of Monicas is a ministry dedicated to supporting mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, and aunts facing this issue. Inspired by St. Monica's prayers for her son, St. Augustine, the group gathers weekly to earnestly pray for the joyful return of their children to full communion with the Catholic Church. Millions of Monicas meet every Tuesday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, located at 127 Church Road, Madison. For further details, please contact the church office at 601.856.2054, email millionsofmonicas@stjosephgluckstadt.com, or visit www.millionsofmonicas.com.
