2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 19, 2025

We have concluded our celebration of the Christmas season and now have returned to the weeks of Ordinary Time. Lent will not begin until March 5 this year, so we will be in Ordinary Time until that date. This week, the Church calls us to pray for Christian unity with the other Christian denominations. This year's theme for the prayer for Christian unity, "I believe," reflects the 1700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, in which the Nicene Creed was adopted. As we celebrate the holiday dedicated to Martin Luther King Jr and as we inaugurate a new president this week, we pray for unity in our country and amongst all Christians. Blessings to all of you - Father Lincoln

Father Lincoln posts all his homilies, prayers of the faithful, and other reflections on his blog. You can access them on: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>

Millions of Monicas – Praying With Confidence For Our Children

Many individuals have children who find it challenging to connect with their Catholic faith or have completely distanced themselves from the Church. Millions of Monicas is a ministry dedicated to supporting mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, and aunts facing this issue. Inspired by St. Monica's prayers for her son, St. Augustine, the group gathers weekly to earnestly pray for the joyful return of their children to full communion with the Catholic Church. Millions of Monicas meet every Tuesday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, located at 127 Church Road, Madison. For further details, please contact the church office at 601.856.2054, email millionsofmonicas@stjosephgluckstadt.com, or visit www.millionsofmonicas.com.
