5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 9, 2025

Today, we continue our journey during Ordinary Time, with a little less than a month to go before we commemorate the beginning of Lent, since Lent falls late in our liturgical calendar this year, falling on March 5. Today, we have commitment Sunday for the Catholic Service Appeal. We are very thankful for the ways the different ministries of our Diocese are helped by the appeal. I am very thankful for our parishioners who give generously to the Catholic Service Appeal. There are precepts of the Church outlined by the Catechism, which Catholics are called to follow. One of the precepts is to attend Mass on Sundays and on holy days of obligation. Another precept is to help provide for the needs of the Church, meaning that the faithful are obliged to assist with the material needs of the Church, each according to his own ability. Helping out financially in our parish and our Diocese are a part of this. We all are called to reflect upon the ways we are fulfilling this duty. Thank you for helping out our parish and our Diocese in so many different ways. Father Lincoln.

Father Lincoln posts all his homilies, prayers of the faithful, and other reflections on his blog. You can access them on: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>

*We would like to list your family and friends in special need of prayer.
Please contact the office to add a name to the bulletin.*

Chris Halliwell and Hunter Yentzen have been instituted as acolytes by Bishop Kopacz this weekend. An acolyte is appointed to serve the priest in the celebration of the liturgy. Acolytes are dedicated to service at the altar and may assist other ministers and with the purification of vessels used during Communion. This is part of their Diaconate formation. Please keep the 7 men going through formation and their families in your prayers as they approach the final year of their formation.

Mass Intentions: February 11 – Michelle Jeanfreau

Your pledge to the annual Catholic Service Appeal, joined with others, empowers our diocese to provide vital ministries and services. By contributing, you become a part of Hope Rising, embodying Christ's promise and extending hope to those who serve us. Together, we support essential ministries like Clergy Healthcare Assistance, ensuring our active and retired priests, as well as our seminarians, receive the healthcare they need. This ministry covers healthcare costs and helps with out-of-pocket expenses, so they can continue their vocation with peace of mind. Please consider a generous pledge to support the Catholic Service Appeal, helping us carry forward this important mission in our diocese.

NO

LOVE

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH CHRIST'S PASSION

In “No Greater Love”, You Will Experience the Unconditional Love Christ Has for You. We often hear about Jesus’ passion and death, but imagine experiencing them for the very first time.

In “No Greater Love: A Biblical Walk Through Christ’s Passion”, we are going to walk step-by-step with Jesus on his journey from his agony in the garden to his crucifixion on Calvary. Along the way, we will unpack the biblical background to these events, the prophecies, and most especially, the ways Jesus is inviting us to walk more closely with him today. This video pilgrimage reveals Christ’s amazing love for us. Best-selling author Edward Sri guides you through the last hours of Christ’s life. Every step of the way, Old Testament prophecies, messianic expectations, biblical symbolism, and historical context shed light on the mystery of Christ’s suffering and death.

“No Greater Love” is a five-part Bible study program that begins on March 16th at 9:15 am in McGing Hall. All adults are invited to this special Lenten study. For more information, contact Chris Halliwell at (601) 757-9910 or by email at: challiwell62@gmail.com.

Marian Servants: On Tuesday, February 11, The Marian Servants of Jesus the Lamb of God will begin a 14 Week study of the Ignatius Rules of Discernment using Fr Timothy Gallagher's book The Discernment of the Spirits, An Ignatian Guide for Everyday Living. On our journey toward God, all faithful persons experience inner spiritual ups and downs. The Rules for Discernment written by St. Ignatius helps us to become aware, understand, and take action when we are confused by the spiritual turmoil of these ups and downs. We invite anyone interested in learning more about the discernment of the Spirit to join us each Tuesday afternoon from 1:00 -- 3:00pm at St. Jude in the St. Mary room of the Office/Classroom building. For more information contact Maureen Roberts 601-278-0423.

Millions of Monicas – Praying With Confidence For Our Children

Many individuals have children who find it challenging to connect with their Catholic faith or have completely distanced themselves from the Church. Millions of Monicas is a ministry dedicated to supporting mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, and aunts facing this issue. Inspired by St. Monica's prayers for her son, St. Augustine, the group gathers weekly to earnestly pray for the joyful return of their children to full communion with the Catholic Church. Millions of Monicas meet every Tuesday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, located at 127 Church Road, Madison. For further details, please contact the church office at 601.856.2054, email millionsofmonicas@stjosephgluckstadt.com, or visit www.millionsofmonicas.com.
