8th Sunday in Ordinary Time

March 2, 2025

This is the last Sunday in Ordinary Time before we begin the holy season of Lent this upcoming week on Ash Wednesday. Even though Ash Wednesday is not a holy day of obligation, it is a day when our Masses are packed with people. Getting the smudge of ash on our foreheads on Ash Wednesday has great symbolism for the Catholic faithful. Every year I look forward to the holy season of Lent as a time to renew my faith and to prepare in a meaningful way for Easter and the paschal mysteries. I invite all of you to join us this Wednesday for the start of this holy time. Father Lincoln.

Father Lincoln posts all his homilies, prayers of the faithful, and other reflections on his blog. You can access them on: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>

Adult Education:

In “No Greater Love”, You Will Experience the Unconditional Love Christ Has for You. We often hear about Jesus’ passion and death, but imagine experiencing them for the very first time.

In “No Greater Love: A Biblical Walk Through Christ’s Passion”, we are going to walk step-by-step with Jesus on his journey from his agony in the garden to his crucifixion on Calvary. Along the way, we will unpack the biblical background to these events, the prophecies, and most especially, the ways Jesus is inviting us to walk more closely with him today. This video pilgrimage reveals Christ’s amazing love for us. Best-selling author Edward Sri guides you through the last hours of Christ’s life. Every step of the way, Old Testament prophecies, messianic expectations, biblical symbolism, and historical context shed light on the mystery of Christ’s suffering and death.

“No Greater Love” is a five-part Bible study program that begins on March 16th at 9:15 am in McGing Hall. All adults are invited to this special Lenten study. For more information, contact Chris Halliwell at (601) 757-9910 or by email at: challiwell62@gmail.com.

Marian Servants: On Tuesday, February 11, The Marian Servants of Jesus the Lamb of God will begin a 14 Week study of the Ignatius Rules of Discernment using Fr Timothy Gallagher's book The Discernment of the Spirits, An Ignatian Guide for Everyday Living. On our journey toward God, all faithful persons experience inner spiritual ups and downs. The Rules for Discernment written by St. Ignatius helps us to become aware, understand, and take action when we are confused by the spiritual turmoil of these ups and downs. We invite anyone interested in learning more about the discernment of the Spirit to join us each Tuesday afternoon from 1:00 -- 3:00pm at St. Jude in the St. Mary room of the Office/Classroom building. For more information contact Maureen Roberts 601-278-0423.

Millions of Monicas – Praying With Confidence For Our Children

Many individuals have children who find it challenging to connect with their Catholic faith or have completely distanced themselves from the Church. Millions of Monicas is a ministry dedicated to supporting mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, and aunts facing this issue. Inspired by St. Monica's prayers for her son, St. Augustine, the group gathers weekly to earnestly pray for the joyful return of their children to full communion with the Catholic Church. Millions of Monicas meet every Tuesday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, located at 127 Church Road, Madison. For further details, please contact the church office at 601.856.2054, email millionsofmonicas@stjosephgluckstadt.com, or visit www.millionsofmonicas.com.
