Fr. Lincoln's Reflection

This weekend, we celebrate the end of the Easter season as we celebrate Pentecost, the coming of the Holy Spirit into the world. Red is the liturgical color of Pentecost, different from the white color of the rest of the Easter season. For the next three weekends, we will celebrate different feasts before we return to the Sundays of Ordinary Time: The Most Holy Trinity, The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (sometimes traditionally referred to as Corpus Christi), and the Saints Peter and Paul. I know that a lot of our parishioners and families travel during the summer months. I will be gone for some mission appeals as well to Rhode Island, California, and Iowa. As we celebrate Pentecost this weekend, we pray that we may all call upon the Holy Spirit to lead us and guide us on our journey of faith. Blessings to all of you. Father Lincoln.
