Fr. Lincoln's Reflection

As we hear the story of Jesus visiting Mary and Martha in the Gospel today, and as we hear of Abraham showing hospitality to three strangers in today's first reading, I think of the importance of hospitality as a part of our Catholic faith and the ways we try to show hospitality here at our parishes of Holy Savior and Immaculate Conception. It is important for us to be welcoming to everyone and to help everyone feel that they are invited to be a member of our community. With the busyness of our everyday lives, it is easy for hospitality to get lost with everything else that is going on. But we should always remember how important it is to welcome everyone, to make them feel that they can be a part of our Catholic faith. Pope Francis always mentioned how we need to be a Catholic Church that goes forth into the world and invites. That is an important message we need to hear. Have a blessed week everyone.

- Father Lincoln.

Holy Savior parish has set up a Carmelite Monastery parish workday for Saturday, August 2.

A note from Chris Halliwell who heads this up:

We have five committed lawn mowers currently. What they will desperately need are more folks on the ground with weed eaters, blowers, rakes and all the norm. We really need some strong backs and legs to walk the outer parts of the property and haul debris to the burn pile. We will have a dump trailer to help. Please consider giving some time to this cause. We will start at approximately 8 a.m. and should be able to finish by noon. Please let Chris know if you plan to attend so the sisters can prepare enough food and water. Thank you! Chris Halliwell (601-757-9910).
