21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 24, 2025

This weekend I am going to my last mission appeal, back to Cumberland, Rhode Island to a different parish, but the same town in Rhode Island that I visited back in June. I remember when the end of August used to signify the end of the summer, but with year-round school schedules and a very different rhythm of life in our modern world, I think summer has lost a lot of the significance that it used to have. The themes of perseverance and patience in our readings today remind us of how important it is to be patient and consistent on our journey of faith. When I go hiking in Spain, I am definitely not the fastest hiker on the trail, but I very consistent and steady, which works for me. It is good to be consistent and steady on our journey of faith. Have blessed week everyone. Father Lincoln.

Father Lincoln posts all his homilies, prayers of the faithful, and other reflections on his blog. You can access them on: <http://peregrinolincoln.blogspot.com>

Symbolon: The Faith of the Church

A new adult religious education program is being offered on Sundays at 9 am in McGing Hall. From the Augustine Institute (as seen on the FORMED Platform), this study invites parishioners on a journey through salvation history and the core teachings of the Catholic faith using the Nicene Creed as a guide. This 16-episode series explores everything from the sacraments to inspiring saintly stories, empowering each of us to understand, love, and share our faith confidently. Classes will meet for one hour and will typically consist of a 30- minute video session, followed by lively group discussion. Symbolon has been used all over the world in OCIA, catechist training, men's and women's groups, Bible studies, and more.

Welcome back to all our college students! Join our GroupMe using the QR code for more information on activities and events.

Join us in praying each week for our children

For the last year, a group of women from numerous parishes in our area have gathered each week to pray for our children who may be struggling to embrace their faith. We are part of the nationwide Millions of Monica's prayer ministry and invite you to join us. We believe that by coming together weekly, uniting our hearts and voices in prayer together, we can bring strength and joy to each other. Join with other mothers, grandmothers, Godmothers, etc., as we pray to grow in holiness and humility, and for our children's faithful return to their Catholic faith. Millions of Monicas meet at St. Joseph Gluckstadt, Tuesdays 6:30-7:30 pm. For more information contact Millions of Monicas at millionsofmonicas@stjosephgluckstadt.com.
